

RLS Radiopharmacies

A Telix Company

2026 RLS EDUCATIONAL OFFERINGS

Programs Offered

1

Gastric Emptying Best Practices- The New GLP-1 Drugs and <USP 825> Changes

2

Cardiac Amyloidosis Imaging- A Look at 2 Subtypes (AL & ATTR) and Tc99m PYP or HDP

3

I-123 Ioflupane Best Practices- Understanding Parkinson's Disease, Neurotransmitters, and Achieving High Quality Images

4

Cardiac PET- History of MPI tracers, Current FDA Approved Cardiac PET Tracers, SPECT vs PET, and Protocols

5

PET Radiopharmaceutical Development and Production

Katrina Beckett, MHA, CNMT

Katrina, our Southeast account manager, has been with RLS for six years. With over 25 years in the medical field, she's worked in all three nuclear medicine modalities. She's a continuing education specialist, new hire trainer, and adjunct facilitator for the University of Cincinnati's MHA program. Since 2017, she has served on SNMMI's Quality Committee, proudly giving back to the Nuclear Medicine community.

katrina.beckett@rls.bio

601-990-7616

rls.bio

Each participant successfully completing one of these programs will achieve 1.0 CEHs (Continuing Education Hours) as per The Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging (SNMMI)'s Verification of Involvement in Continuing Education (VOICE) programs.

Please contact Katrina or your RLS representative to schedule a program!